

2/7/15 Slagg Brothers Rhythm & Blues, Soul & Grooves Show

The Boys Are Back In Town	4:23	Thin Lizzy	Originally released in 1976 on their album Jailbreak. Philip Parris Lynott born 1949 in West Bromwich
Backslop	2:33	Baby Earl & The Trinidads
Locomotive Breath	4:25	Jethro Tull	From their 1971 album, Aqualung. The composition is designed to resemble a train chugging. Anderson occasionally says a word like "Oh-OH!" in the style of "All aboard?!", as shouted by train conductors.
Don't Stop Me Now	3:32	Queen	Featured on their 1978 album Jazz.
I Know What I Like (In Your Wardrobe)	3:54	Genesis	1973, from the album Selling England by the Pound, their first charting single. Peter Gabriel on lead vocals.
Paper Plane	2:56	Status Quo	This was the band's first single for the progressive label Vertigo and its 12 bar boogie set the template for Quo's sound for years to come. From album Piledriver, 1972.
Since You've Been Gone	3:18	Rainbow	Original by Russ Ballard, who wrote it in 1975. Covered by Rainbow for the 1979 Down To Earth
Wishing Well	3:38	Free	1972, from Heartbreaker, their sixth and final studio album. Excluding the 1991 remix of "All Right Now," this was the last of Free's 3 UK Top-10 hits.
Ace Of Spades	2:47	Motorhead	Title track to the 1980 album Ace of Spades.
Silver Machine	4:40	Hawkwind	Recorded live at a Greasy Truckers benefit gig at The Roundhouse, London on 13 February 1972, but lead vocals later recorded by Lemmy in a studio as original live vocals by Robert Calvert considered to be too weak
Going For The One	5:33	Yes	Album topped the UK album chart for two weeks in 1977. Steve Howe's guitar made by Wilkes Guitars in Hanley for this album. Bassist Chris Squire passed away this week, the only member to play on each of their 21 studio albums from 1969 to 2014.
Higher And Higher	3:53	Strider	From debut album, "Exposed", was released on Phillips Records in 1973.
The Faith Healer	3:14	The Sensational Alex Harvey Band	1973, from Next, their second album.
Easy Livin	2:39	Uriah Heep	1972, it was the band's only hit in the United States
Doctor Doctor	4:03	UFO	1974. Written by the band's, at the time, new guitarist, Michael Schenker and original singer Phil Mogg.
Blowin' Free	5:20	Wishbone Ash	From Argus, named "Album of the Year" in 1972 by Sounds magazine. This song is about Annalena Nordstrom, the Swedish girlfriend of bass player Martin Turner.
Who Are You (Single Edit)	5:06	The Who	From 1978 album, Who Are You, the last before drummer Keith Moon's death in September in the same year.
Couldn't Get It Right	3:10	Climax Blues Band	Originally known as the Climax Chicago Blues Band, formed in Stafford in 1968. Vocalist and harmonica player Colin Cooper died in 2008. Top 10 in UK, 1976
Never Say Die	3:50	Black Sabbath	1978. Never Say Die! is their eighth studio album and was the final Black Sabbath studio album to feature vocalist Ozzy Osbourne prior to his departure from the band the following year.
Fireball	3:25	Deep Purple	1971. Opening song of the album of the same name. The noise intro to the song was a sound of an air-conditioning unit. Odd song for Deep Purple as it features no lead guitar solo, only a bass one.
Hold Your Head Up	3:48	Argent	1972. Argent founded in 1969 by keyboardist Rod Argent, formerly of The Zombies.
Far Far Away	3:38	Slade	Released in 1974 to promote the upcoming film titled Slade in Flame
